

Wellbeing Report 2020

This year was the first year of an individual being in the role of Wellbeing in LSU Media. In these trying times, the role has never been more important.

We have successfully organised 3 socials this year, unfortunately we were unable to hold an Alumni Weekend or host Media Awards, however we intend to make next year better than ever.

The role of Wellbeing Officer is not one that is obvious, there are many behind the scenes work that involves the role, including signposting and advising on welfare matters as well as being a point of contact for members who don't know who to go to. A key part of this role is advising the LSU Media Executive Committee on the needs of the average member, as this is something that needs to be considered.

Overall we hope to see future incarnations of this role take what has been achieved this year and be built upon, and hopefully will be able to host events that were cancelled this year.
